URGE Complaints and Reporting Policy for The Ohio State University

This is what was found by Byrd/SES Pod at The Ohio State University on policies for handling complaints, the reporting process, resources, and possible outcomes.

- The link(s) to the reporting policy at our organization are here:
  - OSU Nondiscrimination/Harassment Policy: Ohio State University Policies
  - SES Code of Conduct: School of Earth Sciences Policies
  - Are reporting policies regularly reviewed? What is the process for changing policy?
    - “This policy and the associated procedures will be revised by a working group comprised of OIE, the Office of Academic Affairs, the Office of Human Resources, the Office of Legal Affairs, and the Office of Student Life.” - OSU Nondiscrimination/Harassment Policy
  - Are the rates of reporting made publicly available (e.g. # of reports each year)?
    - Office of the Ombuds releases annual reports of interactions; Crime statistics are reported by Department of Public Safety under the Clery Act

- What mechanisms are available for reporting complaints, bias, microaggressions, harassment, and overt racism?
  - Who are the designated individuals/positions for reporting incidents?
    - Informal mediation through Office of the Ombuds for faculty and graduate students
    - Formal reporting through Office of Institutional Equity (specifically “associate VP of OIE or designee”) is responsible for receiving and processing complaints according to university policy (Nondiscrimination/Harassment VIII A(1))
  - Can reports be made online? Where? Yes, BART; OIE; HR Workplace Complaint Anonymously? Yes: Anonymous Reporting Line
  - Who do in-person and online reports go to? Who has access to see reports?
    - All reports related to harassment or discrimination are funneled to OIE
  - Are police included in the process? When and how? Are individuals accompanied by an advocate or someone from the organization? Unclear

- What are the outcomes or consequences for reported individuals?
  - Follow-up by supervisor, training (bias, etc.), disciplinary action, termination.
    - “Disciplinary corrective actions include coaching, development plans, reduction in supervisory duties and leadership responsibilities, changes in salary, termination, and other appropriate corrective actions.”
“Remedial measures [e.g., providing training, increasing security, changing policy, conducting climate checks] may also be implemented when it is determined that inappropriate behavior occurred, but that the behavior did not rise to the level of a policy violation.”

Who decides the outcomes/consequences? OIE What is the process?
- Initial assessment, informal resolution, other resolutions involving educational conversation/informal coaching, investigative resolution
- “In cases involving staff, any subsequent corrective action will be implemented by the employee’s supervisor, Employee and Labor Relations, and/or other Human Resources professional as appropriate.”
- “In cases involving faculty, formal misconduct complaints regarding policy violations or other inappropriate behavior must be pursued through the University Faculty Rule 3335-5-04 process, and non-disciplinary measures may be implemented by the faculty member’s chair or dean if appropriate.”

Are reports tracked? Yes/No How are they tracked? By who?
- Cases likely tracked by OIE, but this is unclear

Are repeated complaints escalated to a disciplinary board? What is the process?
- “The investigator and/or the resolutions officer will review, if available, any information related to prior misconduct if relevant and probative to the alleged conduct at issue, such as that it demonstrates a pattern of behavior. In such circumstances, the prior information may be used as evidence in the investigative resolution process.” - Investigative Resolution Standards

What resources are available for individuals reporting?
- Counselors or advocates, especially those of the same race, ethnicity, and gender.
  - For students: Counseling and Consultation Services, Student Advocacy Center
  - For employees: Employee Assistance Program
- Automatic or requested investigation of potential impact on grades or evaluations. Unclear
- Protection against retaliation or repercussions, accommodations for continuing work/courses, option for pass/fail or outside assessment.
  - Whistleblower policy
  - Supportive Measures for complainants and respondents will be assessed on a case-by-case basis depending on the circumstances and may include: no contact, referral to appropriate campus/community services, deadline extensions, modified work/class schedules/work locations/reporting relationships, leave requests, academic petition, safety planning, information about protective orders, removal of third-party visitor/participant/contractor, etc. - Investigative Resolution Standards

What resources are available to groups raising issues or proposing changes?
Petitions of # signatures trigger a town hall, meeting with organizational leadership, or policy change. What is the follow-up process for town halls and meetings?

- Working groups or committees with power to change or propose changes to policy.
  - Task Force on Racism and Racial Inequities
- Cultural surveys, regular or only after wide-spread reports or high-profile incidents.
- Leadership proactively asks students and/or staff for input on how to improve.
