● What are the requirements for an applicant, e.g. letters of recommendations, fees/ test scores/grades? Is providing any of these a potential barrier that could be further lowered or removed? Are there any problematic questions asked?
  ○ 3 Letters of recommendations, minimum undergraduate GPA of 3.0 (may vary according to program), GRE (biophysics), TOEFL, Statement of Purpose, Personal History Statement, Relevant experience, application fee ($105-150)
  ○ We did not find any barriers with the requirements
    ■ Waiver for application fee
Only one program required GRE scores

- We did not find any problematic questions within the applications

- How are applicants/applications evaluated? Is that process and/or rubric public? What kind of biases are introduced in this process and what strategies are used to address these, e.g. removing applicant names?
  - Graduate: GPA, equivalent bachelor’s degree
  - Undergraduate: UCR will calculate their academic index score
    - Could not find much information on how applicants are evaluated but we found requirements for applicants

- Who is on selection committees and who makes the final decisions? Who interacts with the applicants?
  - Graduate Council: academic integrity
  - Undergraduate: Contact Counselor
    - GradSIS: admissions committee, designed to give departments an option to route the application to the admissions committee for review
    - Not much information can be found on who interacts with applicants and who is on the selection committees

- Has your hiring and/or admissions process been evaluated by outside consultants? What is the process for changing it?
  - We were not able to find information on evaluations and if there is information available it is not easily accessible

- Has your university or company implemented or considered strategies like cohort hiring, mentoring, dual career support and partner hires, re-visioning your work culture, or other considerations outlined in “Leveraging Promising Practices”?
