Resources within WCNR:
- Diversity and Inclusion in Natural Resources: https://warnercnr.colostate.edu/diversity/about/
- Schedule a meeting with Dr. Rickey Frierson, Director of Diversity and Inclusion: https://warnercnr.colostate.edu/diversity/schedule-meeting/
- Diversity and Inclusion Program Newsletter: https://warnercnr.colostate.edu/diversity/newsletter-signup/
- Minorities in Agriculture, Natural Resources, and Related Sciences (MANRRS): https://warnercnr.colostate.edu/student-organizations/manrrs/ is a national society that welcomes the membership of people from all racial and ethnic groups that participate in agricultural, natural resource, and related science fields of study. MANRRS provides a community of friends as well as a network of employers for its members. This network exists to support and sculpt their professional skills. We act as a springboard that launches members into the professional world. They start off their careers with the bountiful knowledge they have acquired from attending meetings and club outings. MANRRS offers students an opportunity to enhance leadership, organizational, and public speaking skills as they receive a professional critique of resumes and other documents in an environment full of supportive friends. When not working on perfecting their careers, one can find the members giving back to the community through volunteering!

Resources within CSU:

Cultural Centers
- Asian Pacific American Cultural Center: The Asian Pacific American Cultural Center (APACC) provides programs and services to support the retention, graduation and success of students. APACC runs educational and volunteer programs to help spread awareness of Asian American culture and build community among Asian Americans, Pacific Islanders, and their allies. The Center welcomes all students and seeks to create a safe place for students of all backgrounds. The Center contributes to an inclusive campus environment by providing resources for Asian Pacific American awareness, education, and identity development.

- Black/African American Cultural Center: http://www.baacc.colostate.edu/ The Black/African American Cultural Center promotes a diverse, inclusive campus environment and serves as a resource to the campus community as well as surrounding communities, through academic, professional, cultural, and personal development programs that embrace Black and African American experiences. The primary goal is to enhance the overall college experience so that students achieve academically and are able to compete in a global society. The office has as one of its foremost goals to enhance students’ knowledge of the culture, history, heritage, and traditions that are unique to the African American experience. We are committed to improving the cultural and social awareness of the University, alumni, and surrounding communities by promoting programs that offer cross-cultural perspectives and by creating mutual opportunities for exchange through cooperative planning and support for all University services. Drop by our offices in the Lory Student Center to learn more about our work towards Student Development & Support, Diversity & Social Justice Education, and Cultural Education & Celebration.

- El Centro: http://www.elcentro.colostate.edu/ El Centro provides an energetic, welcoming, and inclusive environment. We have resources to support personal, professional, social, cultural, and academic needs of all students who want to become involved with El Centro. We offer a place for discovering and appreciating diverse heritages, traditions, and cultures. Student can visit El Centro to relax, socialize, laugh, engage in dialogue, and build life-long memories. El Centro is a family, a “home away from home,” a place that provides a sense of belonging.

- Pride Resource Center: http://prideresourcecenter.colostate.edu/ The Pride Resource Center supports and affirms the diverse identities and lives of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning (LGBTQ), Two-Spirit, and same-gender loving people as individuals and as groups, especially as students, staff, and faculty of CSU and their families, friends, and allies, through the cultivation of safe space, educational outreach, advocacy, increased visibility of LGBTQ issues, information and referral resources, and academic and leadership opportunities.

- Native American Cultural Center: http://www.nacc.colostate.edu/ The office of Native American Cultural Center (NACC) was established in 1979. The four primary advocacy and service areas include recruitment, retention, graduation, and community outreach. The office embraces and encourages a supportive environment based on the traditions and cultures of Native American peoples. We embrace diversity and commit to improving the campus climate of inclusion. All students are welcome in our office.

- Women and Gender Advocacy Center: http://www.wgac.colostate.edu/ The Women and Gender Advocacy Center provides programs and resources focusing on all genders, social justice, and interpersonal violence prevention. Staff and volunteers also provide confidential advocacy and support for victims of sexual violence, stalking, sexual harassment, and relationship violence. Programs concentrate on examining the intersections of oppression and creating conditions that allow all people to equally access opportunities in a safe campus environment.
